Dear Gottinger:

This letter is to inform you that on December 17, 2018, the Bureau of Consumer Financial Protection (BCFP) received your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated December 17, 2018. Your request sought:

All e-mails sent or received by any government or personal e-mail account used by John M. Mulvaney, which includes any of the following keywords: "Consumer Advisory Board", "Advisory Council", "CAB" between the periods of May 1, 2018 and July 1, 2018.

As it relates to your fee waiver request, your request will be held in abeyance pending the quantification of responsive records. The BCFP Interim FOIA regulations, set forth six factors to examine in determining whether the applicable legal standard for a fee waiver has been met: (1) Whether the subject of the requested records concerns "the operations or activities of the government;" (2) Whether the disclosure is "likely to contribute" to an understanding of government operations or activities; (3) Whether disclosure of the requested information will contribute to the understanding of the public at large, as opposed to the individual understanding of the requestor or a narrow segment of interested persons; (4) Whether the contribution to public understanding of government operations or activities will be "significant;" (5) Whether the requestor has a commercial interest that would be furthered by the requested disclosure; and (6) Whether the magnitude of any identified commercial interest to the requestor is sufficiently large in comparison with the public interest in disclosure, that disclosure is primarily in the commercial interest of the requestor. If any responsive records are located, we will consider these factors in our evaluation of your request for a fee waiver.

You have been determined to be a non-commercial requester and provisions of the FOIA allow the BCFP to recover part of the cost of complying with your request. You will be charged for the search (after the first two hours) and duplication (after the first 100 pages) costs in accordance with the BCFP Interim FOIA regulations as applicable to non-commercial requestors. The BCFP's FOIA Fee Schedule may be viewed at www.consumerfinance.gov/foia-requests/fee-schedule/. You did not indicate in your request a specific amount you were willing to pay. Therefore, in accordance with our regulations, your submission of a FOIA request is construed as an agreement to pay up to $25.00. You will be contacted in the event there are additional fees related to the processing of your request beyond this amount.

For inquiries concerning your request, please reference the FOIA request number above and contact our FOIA Public Liaison at foia@consumerfinance.gov or by phone at 1-855-444-FOIA (3642).

Sincerely,
